16 A probation revocation hearing on a supervised release violation was held before the 17 undersigned Magistrate Judge on December 9, 2005. The United States was represented by 18 Assistant United States Attorney Floyd G. Short, and the defendant by Mr. Douglas Hiatt. The 19 proceedings were recorded on cassette tape.

20 The defendant had been sentenced on or about April 9, 2004, on a charge of bank
21 larceny. The defendant was sentenced to five years probation, a $100.00 mandatory penalty
22 assessment, and restitution in the amount of $18,899.00.

23 In an application dated November 17, 2005, U.S. Probation Officer Michael K. Banks
24 alleged the defendant committed a violation of the conditions of supervised release by contacting
25 Laurie Wolfer on October 28, 2005, in violation of a no-contact order.
26

01 In a violation report dated December 1, 2005, U.S. Probation Officer Raul Salazar
02 indicated that Mr. Connor was apprehended on November 23, 2005, and appeared before the 03 Hon. Monica J. Benton. A detention hearing was held on November 29, 2005, and defendant
04 was ordered detained.

05 At the probation-revocation hearing on December 9, 2005, defendant was advised in full 06 as to the charge of violating the no-contact order as a condition of his supervised release, and 07 as to his constitutional rights. The defendant admitted the violation, and waived any evidentiary
08 hearing as to whether it occurred.

09 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant violated the conditions of his 10 supervised release as to this violation, and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue
11 of disposition. The disposition hearing has been set before The Hon. Thomas S. Zilly on 12 December 16, 2005, at 11:00 a.m.

13 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been detained.

14 DATED this 9th day of December, 2005.
